DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 01 - Fri 15 September Arrival Catania (3 nights)

On arrival at Catania Airport, we'll be met and transferred to our hotel. This evening we'll join Rosa, Colin and our Tour Manager for a welcome dinner at one of Rosa's favourite restaurants, the delightful Ristorante Antica Marina, located in a characteristic quarter of Catania near the Piazza Duomo and the Wall of Carlo V in the historic heart of the city. (D)

Day 02 - Sat 16 September Catania – Fish Market & Excursion to Bronte & Castiglione di Sicilia

A stay in Catania would not be complete without a visit to the famous, very colourful and bustling fish market. Saturday is a great time to be there so this morning the market is first on our agenda. We'll then drive on the slopes of Mt Etna where we'll enjoy a comprehensive introduction to the wines of Sicily. First we'll visit the Planeta Sciaranuova vineyards where we'll taste wines from five different regions of Sicily. The passopisciaro wine of Etna, a recently revived wine made from an ancient local grape variety grown on the slopes of Mt. Etna, a wine from Menfi, a wine from Noto, a wine from Capo Milazzo and a wine from Vittoria. This will be followed by a lunch of traditional Sicilian cuisine, each course paired with a Planeta wine, before a short drive brings us to the Planeta Feudo di Mezzo winery in Castiglione di Sicilia where we'll learn more of the process of wine-making, visit their barrique and take a walk through a vineyard of 120 year-old vines. The pistachios of Bronte, known as 'green gold', are world famous. After lunch we'll visit Bronte town and a producer of pistachio products. We'll spend time learning about the growing of the nuts and tasting some of the many products which are made from them. We'll return to Catania in the late afternoon for a relaxing evening in our hotel. (BL)

Day 03 - Sun 17 September Catania – Sightseeing & Excursion to Mt Etna

This morning we'll explore Catania, also known as the 'Black Pearl' of the Mediterranean Sea because of its baroque palaces predominately constructed from the black lava stone of the area. Mount Etna is the highest active volcano in Europe and a definite must for all visitors to Sicily. This afternoon our circuitous drive takes us through many villages typically built almost entirely of lava. The landscape is constantly changing as we ascend the mountain. At 1,900 metres the scenic situation is dominated by black lava and it's here we'll stop at Rifugio Sapienza to view the now dormant Crateri Silvestri. If the weather and volcanic activity allows it's possible to take a cable-car and an off-road vehicle (accompanied by experienced mountain guides) up to 2,800 metres. As we won't know the conditions until we're on the mountain this option is not included in the tour price but can be purchased on the day. We'll descend from the mountain in the late afternoon and this evening perhaps take a light meal in our hotel or stroll into the surrounding neighbourhood to discover a nearby trattoria for dinner. (B)

Day 04 - Mon 18 September Catania – Milazzo – Lipari – Salina (Aeolian Islands – 2 nights)

Today a drive around the north-east coast of Sicily brings us to the port of Milazzo where we'll embark on our hydrofoil to the Aeolian Islands, a group of eight volcanic islands off the north coast. Lipari is the largest of the group and is famous for its ancient export of obsidian. We'll arrive at the port of Lipari around midday and after a sightseeing drive around the island we'll drop into the Tenuta Castellaro to enjoy a sampling of their island wine accompanied by tasty Aeolian specialties and stirring local music. Then we'll re-board our hydrofoil for the short trip to Salina, our island home for the next two nights. Dinner tonight is at the Ristorante Mamma Santina (BLD)

Day 05 - Tue 19 September Salina – Excursion to Vulcano Island

The island of Vulcano is the southernmost island of the group. It has three volcanoes and is a land of lava, black sands and yellow sulphur rocks. A short private boat trip will get us there and we can choose to circumnavigate the island and perhaps swim in one of its beautiful grottoes, or remain in the town and enjoy the beaches, take a mineral-rich mud bath, walk to one of the volcano craters or linger over a lunch of locally caught sword-fish washed down with local wine! On our return to Salina we'll have an opportunity to eat in one of the many dining establishments close to our hotel. (B)

Day 06 - Wed 20 September

Salina – Milazzo – Castelbuono – Palermo (2 nights)

This morning we take the ferry back to the port of Milazzo where we re-join our coach for the coastal drive which takes us to Palermo. En route we'll stop for lunch in the small town of Castelbuono in the Madonie Mountains. After lunch at Ristorante Nangalarruni we'll also have the opportunity to visit the Pasticceria Fiasconara to sample the sweet pastries of the region made from local manna. On arrival in Palermo we'll settle into our hotel before we explore the surrounding area to find a trattoria or ristorante for our evening meal. (BL)

Day 07 - Thu 21 September

Palermo – Sightseeing & Excursion to Monreale

Our full day in Palermo and its surrounds begins when we join our local guide for a city tour where a special highlight is a visit to the Palatine Chapel inside the Royal Palace, rich in mosaics and Byzantine decorations. Next is the Cathedral of Palermo, a sumptuous example of Norman architecture, where we'll visit the Imperial and Royal tombs. We'll also see the 16th century Pretoria Fountain which, after its unveiling, so outraged the locals that it was forever known as the Fontana della Vergogna, or the 'Fountain of Shame'. Our morning sightseeing is completed with a visit to one of Palermo's markets where Rosa will be delighted to introduce us to Sicilian street-food... just around lunch-time!

After time for lunch we'll drive to Monreale, the Norman 'Mons Regalis', which is situated at the foot of Monte Caputo, a short distance from the centre of Palermo. The majestic dome of its Cathedral was built in the 12th century by the Norman King, William II and is 6,340 square meters of polychrome and gold mosaics.

This gives rise to its local name of the golden bible, referring to the mosaics telling the stories of the Old and New Testament. We'll also visit the Benedictine cloister, which completes one of the most magnificent testimonies to the Norman conquest of Sicily. (BL)

Day 08 - Fri 22 September

Palermo – Trapani – Paceco – Marsala (1 night)

This morning we'll drive to Trapani, an ancient Phoenician trading port and a very important town during the Middle Ages. We'll view the Castello del Mare before we visit the area's famous salt pans and the Salt Museum. Next we head to Paceco where we'll share a light lunch in the village of Fontanasalsa at an old Olive Oil Mill. After lunch we continue to our vineyard hotel close to Marsala where there'll be time to relax before we drive into the city to dine at another of Rosa's favourite eateries. (BLD)

Day 09 - Sat 23 September

Marsala – Agrigento – Caltagirone Area (2 nights)

Our day begins with a 'pick-me-up' when we visit the Cantine Pellegrino for a guided tour along with a tasting of their celebrated Marsala wine! Then our drive brings us to the southern coast of Sicily and the town of Agrigento with its marvellous Valley of the Temples, undoubtedly one of the Island's most famous historical attractions. In this splendid archaeological park we'll admire the collection of ancient Greek temples including the beauty of the Temple of Concordia, among the best preserved of the temples, the Temple of Juno, built just prior to the Temple of Concordia and badly damaged by an earthquake during the middle ages, and the Temple of Castor and Pollux, a Doric temple built around the 5th century A.D. We'll continue our journey to the area of Caltagirone and our special agriturismo accommodation where this evening we'll enjoy a dinner of local specialities in their restaurant. (BD)

Day 10 - Sun 24 September

Caltagirone Area – Excursion to Villa Romana del Casale & Caltagirone Town

Today our first stop is at the renowned Villa Romana del Casale, a short drive from Piazza Armerina. This splendid Roman villa owes its fame to its magnificent mosaic floors, thought to be the work of North African artists, which are rather striking due to the variety of colours used and the incredibly interesting subjects depicted. Lunch today is a very special event when we'll visit the exclusive Tenuta Manca di Geracello, a private 'estate' close to Piazza Armerina where we'll enjoy a sumptuous local meal accompanied by their excellent wine! We'll also have an opportunity to sample the first-class olive oil produced on the estate. Sicily is famous for its ceramics and after lunch we'll visit the city of Caltagirone, one of the liveliest baroque towns in central Sicily and known throughout Italy as 'The City of Sicilian Ceramics'.

The main landmark of the city is the 142-step monumental Staircase of Santa Maria del Monte, built from 1608 in the old part of the town. Each step is decorated with different hand-decorated ceramics, using styles and figures derived from the millennial tradition of pottery making. Later this evening we'll return to our agriturismo accommodation and a light dinner to top off a memorable day. (BLD)

Day 11 - Mon 25 September

Caltagirone Area – Marzamemi – Syracuse (3 nights)

Our drive today brings us into the UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Val di Noto situated in the south-eastern corner of the island. En route to Syracuse and just a few kilometres up the coast from Italy's southernmost point is the enchanting seaside village of Marzamemi...an ideal spot to take time for lunch. Later this afternoon there'll be time to relax before this evening's dinner in one of Rosa's cosiest eateries, the Osteria La Gazza Ladra in Ortigia, an endearing restaurant known for its 'home-style' cooking! (BD)

Day 12 - Tue 26 September

Syracuse – Sightseeing

Syracuse was the most important Greek city of antiquity which flourished on the coast of Sicily, a formidable seafaring power which was nearly the equal of Athens. Our local guide will join us this morning for a tour of Ortigia Island, the heart of the ancient city where time seems to be caught between the mediaeval and baroque eras. We'll admire the architectural splendour of its ancient mediaeval streets, baroque structures and classic churches before we continue to the archaeological park with its remarkable Greek and Roman ruins. Now part of a World Heritage Site the park contains the Greek Theatre, one of the biggest in the Greek world, the Latomias, big stone quarries with the famous 'Ear of Dionysius' and the Roman Amphitheatre, created at the time of Augustus. After visiting Ortigia for dinner the previous day it's certain that by this time we'll all agree ...that Ortigia is particularly wonderful at night! So, this evening we'll enjoy more of its ambience as we stroll among its narrow streets to find a local trattoria or ristorante for our evening meal. (B)

Syracuse – Excursion to Modica (Cooking Class), Scicli & Noto

Our first stop this morning is in Modica where we'll visit the local market to purchase the ingredients for Rosa's cooking class at the Osteria dei Sapori Perduti, one of her favourite lunch-time restaurants in the Val di Noto! Under Rosa's expert tutelage we'll enjoy the lunch we've prepared and afterwards, because we can, we'll visit the legendary Antica Dolceria Bonajuto, the oldest chocolate factory in Sicily, to taste chocolate which is still made by using the old Aztec method. Next, we'll take a short drive to Scicli. Many of us will be familiar with the Montalbano TV series which is filmed in Ragusa, Noto, Modica and Scicli. In Scicli we'll discover that the 'police station' in the fictional town of 'Vigata', where Inspector Montalbano plies his trade, is actually the town hall of Scicli in the beautifully preserved baroque street of Via Mormino Penna. And the regional police HQ in the fictional town of 'Montelusa' is located just a few steps down the road from the town hall, in Palazzo Iacono. After exploring Scicli a mid-afternoon drive brings us to the beautiful town of Noto. This baroque jewel was created after the earthquake of 1693 when the reconstruction built many majestic palaces using the soft local limestone which, over time, loses its glaring whiteness and develops a magnificent golden or rosy hue. The town is famous for its ice-cream and there'll be time to visit the Caffe Sicilia and Dolceria Corrado Costanzo to try a 'granita' but don't have too many because this evening we'll enjoy dinner at the Ristorante Crocifisso, the Noto restaurant whose chef is influenced by the tastes of his city. (BLD)

Day 14 - Thu 28 September

Syracuse – Vittoria – Ragusa – Modica (1 night)

The Vittoria region is a renowned wine-producing region of Sicily and this morning we'll take a mid-morning drive to visit the well-known Maggio Vini Winery in the beautiful Pettineo vineyards to taste their local product accompanied by a light lunch. Our overnight stay tonight is in Modica so after lunch we'll check into our hotel with time to relax before driving to the spectacular town of Ragusa where we'll visit its Ibla (Old Town) dominated by its imposing Piazza Duomo and Cathedral dedicated to Saint John the Baptist. This evening we remain in Ragusa's Ibla and it's here that Rosa has reserved the best for last...tonight we'll enjoy a very special farewell to Sicily dinner at the exclusive Michelin-starred Ristorante Duomo! Salut! (BLD)
